

The GAVI Alliance: Accelerating Africa's access to rotavirus vaccines

For more information:
gavialliance.org/support

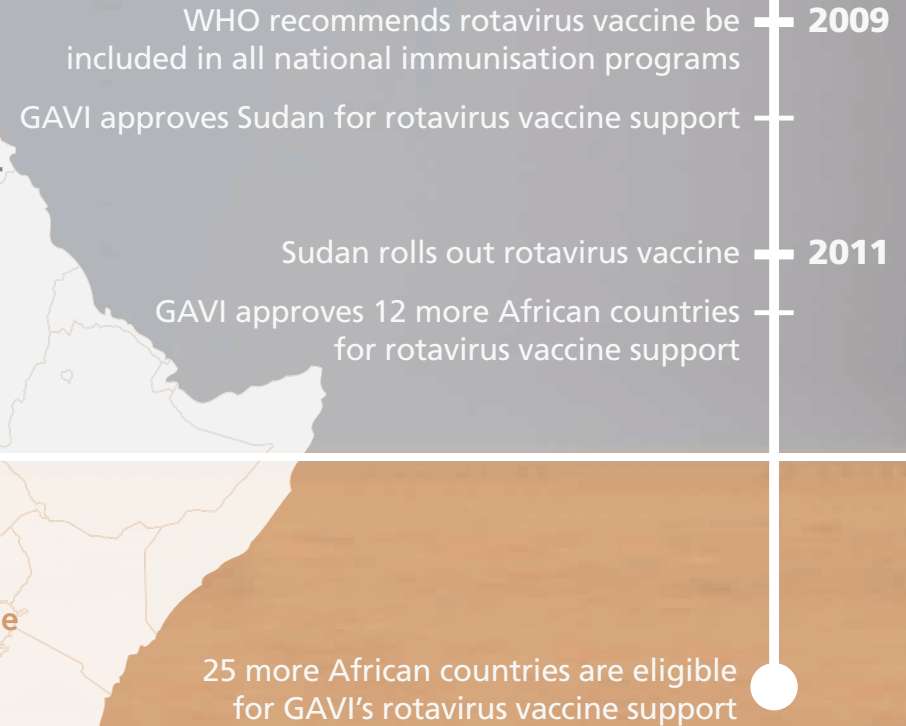

Rotavirus kills more than half a million children a year

50% are in Africa

Angola
Burundi
Cameroun
Congo
Djibouti
Ethiopia
Ghana
Madagascar
Malawi
Niger
Rwanda
Sudan
Tanzania

Benin
Burkina Faso
CAR
Chad
Comoros
Congo DR
Côte d'Ivoire
Eritrea
Gambia
Guinea
Guinea Bissau
Kenya
Lesotho
Liberia
Mali
Mauritania
Mozambique
Nigeria
São Tomé
Senegal
Sierra Leone
Togo
Uganda
Zambia
Zimbabwe

Rotavirus vaccine support timeline

It can take 15-20 years for new life-saving vaccines to reach developing countries

The first GAVI-eligible country in Africa introduced new rotavirus vaccines two years after WHO's universal recommendation

Rotavirus is the world's leading cause of diarrhoeal deaths among children under five

